

Doug's Corner

I hope you all had a great Turkey Day! I want to say thank you for all the texts, calls, food and prayers while we have been stuck in our quarantine. Since I wrote this on Monday, we hope to be back with you this Sunday morning. So far we have been very blessed in Sarah only having a mild case. Of course, if we are not there this morning, that means things got worse. I never have been good at predicting the future.

Our new quarter of Bible classes begins this Wednesday. We are still in need of a few teachers. Please sign up in the foyer. Material for the next quarter is available in the classes.

His Truth Marches On!

Good morning, Bell Avenue! I hope that you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday with your loved ones and that you've come with hearts that are ready to be molded by God's Word. As you know, occasionally I like to share some thoughts with you from a fellow minister. The following article is from Dalton Key who preaches from the 10th and Rockford congregation in Tulsa.

The indictment of Isaiah against his generation, a people who had temporarily succeeded in turning truth upon its head, is no less applicable today: "Woe unto them that call evil good; and good evil, that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!" (Isaiah 5:20,21). Though Isaiah's generation perished in captivity, the truth continued to march on. Their calling "evil good; and good evil" did not make it so.

We face a similar challenge today, when right is called wrong and wrong is called right; when all things "gay" are assumed to be good, while God, oddly enough, is portrayed as one of this world's larger problems.

Everything we once thought was true is now decried as false; all we once thought to be false is now lauded as true. But never forget this: truth will prevail. In the final analysis, when all has been said and done, when once-powerful nations have long-since crumbled into the dust of oblivion, God's truth will prevail. Men may deny truth's very existence. They may denounce it and demonize it. They may debate it incessantly. But truth will prevail.

In the words of James Russell Lowell, "There is no good in arguing with the inevitable. The only argument available with the east wind is to put on your overcoat."
