

PRAYER REQUESTS

Patrick Harris was in a car accident after church Wednesday night and was admitted to BSA hospital. He is back home but bruised and would appreciate our prayers.

Marc Lathem is home and is continuing dialysis. Please keep him and Kay in your prayers.

Please remember them and those on our prayer list when you pray.

BROWN BAG DINNER JULY 29

There will be a brown bag dinner and fellowship this Wednesday at 5:30 before worship service. Come chat and eat with friends!

BUS DRIVERS

We are still in need of bus drivers. Please see Colby Patterson or David Gustin if you are interested in helping out.

DOUG'S CORNER

Since I am writing this early in the week, I am hopeful that we had a wonderful VBS. I want to thank everyone that helped in some way, and also thank you to all that attended. A special thank you to Susan English for all she did in preparing the classes for the students. Thank you to the Thompsons for all their work in decorating and getting our crafts ready, and to Darlene Barrington for her work on the food.

After our devotional service on Wednesday, we will have a time for our Young Disciples to hang out. I hope you will all plan on staying for that.

We will be going to the Teenage Christian Conference in Denver City on Saturday, August 8th. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board by my office. This is an all-day event. You will need money for lunch that day, but everything else is taken care of. We will be traveling with Comanche Trail on their bus.

THIS IS THE WAY! - DOUG
